In Loving Memory of

NANCY MAY WHETZEL

(September 19, 1945 - February 1, 2006)

I only remember two kisses - the first and the last. The first, with my love and the last, with death. The first brought happiness and the last relief!

Srijit Prabhakaran

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest NANCY MAY WHETZEL who was born in United States MOOREFIELD WV. on September 19, 1945 and passed away on February 1, 2006. You will live forever in our memories and hearts.

Gallery

so sweet, so unforgettable...

"Oh Lord You are the Good Shepherd....."

Please keep our precious Mommy in your Care until we meet again on that Glorious Day!

mom to angel Laura Hunter

December 28, 2007

I tried to light a candle for Nancy, but was not able to although I tried several times. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I am sorry for your loss.

The image features two roses, one smaller and one larger, positioned in the upper right quadrant. They are set against a textured, olive-green background that resembles aged paper or parchment. The roses are rendered in a soft, slightly faded style, blending into the background.
